PRESS RELEASE

Indictment

On Friday, October 08, 2021, the Oldham County Grand Jury returned an indictment against a former Oldham County Officer, Thomas Hood.

Mr. Hood, who resigned from the Oldham County Police Department in June of 2021, was indicted on charges of Intimidating a participant in a legal process, Tampering with Physical Evidence, Criminal Coercion, Unlawful Imprisonment, Assault 4th. Degree, Harassing Communications, and Official Misconduct.

These charges and subsequent indictment stem from an investigation conducted by the Oldham County Police Department into domestic issues that occurred in the Spring of 2021.

Mr. Hood is currently free after posting a bond on Monday, October 11. The Commonwealth Attorney's office is prosecuting the case.

Due to this being an open case, no further information is being released.
