MEDIA RELEASE
February 13, 2024
Investigation Involving Student at Oldham County High School

On Wednesday, February 7th, the School Resource Officer assigned to Oldham County High School was informed about an incident which occurred on Feb. 6th, involving a teacher and a student.

It was reported that a juvenile female student, put a staple in the teacher's soft drink bottle, while the teacher was away from her desk. The teacher subsequently drank from the bottle but did not ingest the staple. The soft drink bottle was recovered with a staple in it.

Follow up investigations revealed knowledge that the incident could have caused physical harm.

The student was cited for Wanton Endangerment First Degree and Assault 3rd Degree, against a school employee or school volunteer. Both are felonies.

Since the cited individual is a juvenile, no further information will be released.

If anyone has information related to this incident, please contact the Oldham County Police at 502-222-1300.
